Notice of Approved Amendment

On May 15, 2024, this Court issued an order granting my proposed amended complaint but ordered it to be filed in a new docket and kept this docket terminated . To me that was not ambiguous and it was a clear instruction to file a brand new docket so I did just that . See No. 1:24-cv-00880-PTG-LRV. Instead of responding to the claims, Defendant has repeatedly argued this Court's instructions were to refile the approved amendment on this docket.

I filed the amended complaint as a new docket in good faith of this Court's Order, specifically because the case was left terminated and there was no due date to refile in this Court's order. Although I disagree with Defendant's interpretation of the May 15, 2024 order, I am refiling the amended to this docket to show my good faith to the opposing party and their counsel. They are on record in No. 1:24-cv-00880-PTG-LRV refusing to answer to the substance of the ADA claims, but stating they are prepared to do so. ( See No. 1:24-cv-00880-PTG-LRV Defendant's Memorandum , pages 3-6, and footnote 3 on page 6).

Me filing this amendment should not be considered a disregard of this Court's May 15, 2024 order. I've taken all possible measures to comply. I've filed the new docket to preserve the scenario where I interpreted the Court's instruction properly. On this day, July 18th, 2024, I've now refiled in this docket to preserve the scenario where this Court intended for me to file here.
